

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposed FM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a father of three, and Air 1 reaches the youth in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the youth. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Joe Smith". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am in eighth grade Air 1 reaches my peers in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on my peers. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE

⑦

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Rachel Dawl

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to take FM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a mother of three, and Air 1 reaches the youth in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the youth. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Cheryl Smith". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

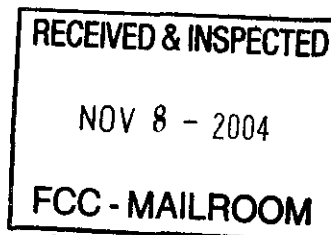

FCC - MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand L-PM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a father of three; Air 1 reaches my children in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has the children. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a high school student, and Air 1 reaches the students in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the students. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE

①

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Dani Smith

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a bachelor in my twenties, and Air 1 reaches the people I work with in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The churches's youth groups and single's groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the attendees. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE

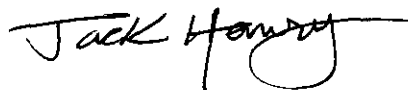

①

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jack Hendry". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LP FM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a mother of three, and Air 1 reaches the youth in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the youth. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Diana Dellym". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

RECEIVED &amp; INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

FCC:

I work at the YMCA as a lifeguard, and I listen to K-love four or five days a week there. Everyone gets to hear the songs that glorify God in the pool area. My coworkers listen to country and oldies, at that time I listen to their music (or keep singing K-love in my head while their music is on). It is wonderful, the best music I can think of - Paul Colman Trio, Caedman's Call, Michael W. Smith, Steven Curtis Chapman, Third Day, and other contemporary Christian artists. They also have pastors on staff for counseling if someone calls in. ~~They are not sure if~~ They meet as all staff for prayer every day at lunchtime. Many people have come to saving faith in the resurrection power of the Lord Jesus through K-love's services. I've gotten all ~~my~~ information off of K-love's program on the air.

If K-love were replaced, I would just have to buy another Christian CD or bring ones I already have to play at work. There is another station that is a lot like K-love yet they have commercials and they don't have pastors on staff as far as I know (95.9 FM). This station does not come in to the pool.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

An intelligent man aims at wise action
but a fool starts off in many directions.
Proverbs 17:24

area. Christian contemporary music is popular with some young believers, such as my sister, who wouldn't dare listen to gospel, but contemporary's sound is great. My community has churches that do ~~not~~ contemporary songs in their services for worship on Sundays.
~~Gospel isn't an widely used in services, I~~ well, we would make it here without K-love. The positive ~~attitude~~ and spiritual uplifting given by K-love is immensely valuable even if there are other Christian station options. This is because Christian music has the possibility of turning people to make peace with God through faith in Jesus finished work of atonement for their sins. It can provide wisdom, truth, and produce the fear of the Lord.
Need I say more? Thank you for reading this. Please consider the best choice for eternal purposes.
Rita A. Kneen

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a father of three, and Air 1 reaches the youth in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the youth. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

0

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Scott DeJura". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping underline that extends to the right.

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to ~~expand LPFM services~~ would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a mother of three, and Air 1 reaches my children in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on my children. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

①

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a high school student, and Air 1 reaches the students in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the students. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Alissa Smith

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand ~~services~~ ~~services~~ would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a bachelorette in my twenties, and Air 1 reaches the people I work with in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The church's youth groups and single's groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the attendees. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd 0
List ABCDE

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Ms. Factor

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPTM to take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a high school student, and Air 1 reaches the students in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the students. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

0

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Jenica Smith". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".